KAYAKING at MacArthur Beach State Park
A UNIQUE EXPERIENCE!

Kayakers may paddle around the estuary, under Burnt Bridge onto the Lake Worth Lagoon, and visit Munyon Island—an outlying part of the Park with a rich history.

Please respect the Park resources, wildlife, plants and environment.

There’s so much more to explore!

- To Enjoy Your Day -

- The best kayaking is close to high-tide; call or visit our web site (www.macarthurbeach.org/kayaking).
- Wear clothing that can get wet, closed-toe or water shoes.
- Wear sunscreen and hat, bring or buy water and snacks.
- Waterproof dry bags, sunscreen, water shoes, snacks and drinks available at the Gift Shop.
- Take nothing of value as it may be damaged by salt water. Rental lockers are available.
